A Special Message from UGA® Alumni Tours:

Elude the depths of winter during this exceptional opportunity to experience seafaring in its most timeless form—beneath 16,000 square feet of billowing white sails aboard the exclusively chartered, three-masted M.Y. LE PONANT. Sail among the idyllic Windward Islands, a remote archipelago of spectacular volcanic islands in the southern Caribbean Sea. Delight in this true sailing experience; discover the historic towns and picturesque harbors favored by yachtsmen for hundreds of years and revel in the sublime charm of island life.

Enjoy a refined yet casual lifestyle on board this intimate, deluxe ship featuring only 32 Staterooms—all ocean-view. The deluxe small sailing ship M.Y. LE PONANT is able to call in smaller ports that are completely inaccessible to larger ships—making this the best way to see the real Caribbean. The idyllic tropical breezes of the southern Caribbean, particularly at this time of year, compel the seasoned crew to unfurl the sails and provide an unforgettable sailing experience.

Sail round trip from Fort-de-France, Martinique, into secluded harbors and popular sailors’ haunts to explore the rich culture and beautiful natural features of the Caribbean’s remote Windward Islands. On this custom-designed itinerary visit St. Vincent’s lush Botanic Garden, the oldest in the Western Hemisphere; be on deck as you approach St. Lucia for a picturesque glimpse of the Gros and Petit Pitons, stunning twin mountain peaks and a UNESCO World Heritage site; experience Dominica’s geothermal activity and see its famous twin Trafalgar Falls. Snorkel amidst the awe-inspiring reefs and marine life in the lagoons of Tobago Cays Marine Park and Union Island; enjoy the stunning natural beauty of Bequia, the most captivating isle of the Grenadines; visit Grenada, where the scent of spices wafts through the air of this exemplary Spice Island; and explore the old-world charm of St. Vincent and its historic capital, Kingstown.

You do not want to miss this intimate, small sailing ship escape to the warm temperatures and alluring ports of the pristine southern Caribbean. This unique, quintessential island sailing voyage around the Windward Islands is an excellent value and a special small group experience to be shared with those who, too, love the lure of the sea. I encourage you to book now, while space and Early Booking Savings are available.
In 1493, in pursuit of the ever-elusive route to the gold of the East Indies, Christopher Columbus encountered the sun-drenched shores of an archipelago half a world away—a world abundant with the golden glow of sunshine, the fresh breeze of the cooling trade winds and the lushness of tropical rainforests. Recapture the spirit of this long ago era and retrace the path of discovery aboard an authentic small sailing ship while watching the sails unfurl to harness the wind and carry you toward the unspoiled, secluded havens of the Windward Islands. Each of these tropical island ports played a role in the ongoing rivalry between the great British and French sea powers across the centuries, and each holds its own unique treasures.

Martinique

Embark your cruise from the sophisticated French-Caribbean island of beautiful Martinique, the most heavily French-influenced of all the West Indies. Christopher Columbus first landed on Martinique in 1502, and the French Post-Impressionist artist Paul Gauguin lived and painted here in 1887. On the east coast of the island, visit the Clément Plantation, a registered French historical landmark where Clément rum has been produced for more than 125 years. An estate built of typical Creole architecture situated between vast fields of sugarcane, stroll through the grounds’ lush botanical gardens, watch the rum distillery process and see its galleries featuring exhibitions that highlight local Caribbean artists and Creole heritage.

Dominica

One of the youngest islands in the Lesser Antilles and the southernmost of the Leeward Islands, Dominica is still being formed by geothermal-volcanic activity. Amongst the island’s unspoiled natural beauty are the numerous rivers—there is said to be one for every day of the year—running through the lush, mountainous rainforests. It is also home to endangered Sisserou Parrots and rare plants and animals long extinct on neighboring islands. Enjoy a walk through the rainforest to view the misty twin cascades of the legendary Trafalgar Falls. Enjoy a privately arranged, exclusive tour of the grounds and first floor of the palatial State House in Roseau, official residence of Dominica’s president.

St. Vincent

Travel through the lush tropics of St. Vincent, following the dramatically scenic Leeward Highway. Visit the extensive Botanical Gardens, the largest in the Western Hemisphere. From the ruins of Fort Charlotte, an early 19th-century citadel built atop a steep promontory, enjoy sweeping vistas of the island’s golden beaches, the English-influenced capital city of Kingstown and the Grenadines beyond.

The Grenadines

Verdant and mountainous Bequia, a seven-square-mile island, is arguably the most beautiful of the Grenadines. Enjoy spectacular views of yacht-filled Admiralty Bay from the remains of 18th-century Hamilton Fort and from Mount Pleasant, Bequia’s highest point at over 800 feet. Visit the Old Hegg Turtle Sanctuary, dedicated to raising endangered hawksbill sea turtle hatchlings and safely releasing them into nature.
these small, uninhabited islands provide ideal snorkeling conditions. Swim among the sea turtles and vivid reef fish and observe an abundance of marine life, including colorful sponges and conchs. Union Island features dramatic volcanic peaks that juxtapose the flat and shallow coral reef systems and glistening turquoise water full of exotic, colorful marine life ideal for snorkeling.

Grenada

Before Grenada achieved independence in 1974, the island was a British colony for nearly two centuries, yet today it retains its distinctively 17th-century French influences in its surnames and locales, in its dialect laced with French words and in spicy dishes prepared in a French manner, much like New Orleans Creole. The volcanic island of Grenada is best known as the “Spice Island,” its cool breezes infused with the fragrances of its main exports—nutmeg, cinnamon, cloves, ginger, mace, allspice, wild coffee and organic cocoa. Tour an herb and spice garden, where you will see ginger, pepper and turmeric growing; walk among cinnamon, clove and bay trees; and learn about rare and medicinal botanicals such as zebapique and jump-up-and-kiss-me, commonly used to treat locals’ cold and flu symptoms.

Visit the gorgeous, two-mile Grand Anse Beach, Grenada’s most quintessential of white-sanded shores, ideally located on the island’s southwest coast and a short distance from its capital, St. George’s.

St. Lucia

Approaching the Windward isle of St. Lucia from the sea, be on deck to experience the magnificent view of its unmistakable twin volcanic peaks, the legendary Pitons: Gros Piton and Petit Piton, together a UNESCO World Heritage site. Many other extinct volcanic domes and craters dot this island of spectacular scenery and unspoiled beaches.

Control of St. Lucia passed back and forth between the British and French for 200 years until the early 1800s, when the British prevailed. In Soufrière, visit Diamond Falls Botanical Gardens, renowned for the mineral-rich waters that have tinted the rocks beneath the falls yellow, green and purple. Then, tour the crater of Soufrière Volcano and Sulphur Springs to witness firsthand that even a dormant volcano experiences ongoing geological activity.

From Soufrière, travel to the bustling port of Rodney Bay. The afternoon is at leisure to visit Pigeon Island National Landmark, one of the most important monuments to St. Lucia’s history; explore the ruins of Fort Rodney, where the British defeated the French and gained control of St. Lucia during the Battle of the Saints in 1782; see fascinating exhibits about the Arawak people, the original settlers of the island; walk up Signal Hill, which offers beautiful panoramic views of St. Lucia’s northern coastline; or enjoy the golden sand and afternoon sunshine on a nearby beach.

The picturesque capital of Grenada, St. George’s is located on the horseshoe-shaped harbor of Carenage and retains many of its French and British influences.
The intimate, three-masted deluxe M.Y. LE PONANT offers an unforgettable and captivating sailing experience—seafaring in its most traditional form. When the 16,000 square feet of majestic sails are unfurled, the ship’s sleek lines and elegant beauty evoke the Golden Age of Sail. A harmonious alliance of nautical tradition and great style, this small ship is designed to cruise into the most secluded harbors where larger vessels cannot reach, and the refined yet casual lifestyle on board is manifest in the warm charm of each Stateroom and in the discreet, impeccable service.

Each of the 32 ocean-view Staterooms features a window or porthole, private bathroom with shower, one fixed queen bed or one queen bed convertible into two twin beds, individual climate control, satellite flat-screen television, wireless Internet access, direct-dial telephone, safe, minibar, dressing table, hair dryer and plush robes.

Meals feature superb French-inspired cuisine and are each served in a single, unassigned seating. Breakfast and lunch can be enjoyed alfresco in the indoor-outdoor Le Diamant Panoramic Restaurant, and dinner is served in the elegant, wood-paneled Karukéra Restaurant. Complimentary alcoholic and nonalcoholic beverages are served throughout the cruise.

The comfortable public areas showcase the ship’s tasteful sophistication favoring life in the open air. There are two lounges, a library and expansive open-air decks that extend the full length of the vessel, and there is an observation platform just above sea level for optional water sports and viewing marine life. Complimentary snorkeling equipment is provided, and fully equipped Zodiacs are used to facilitate island landings and enhance your Caribbean experiences.

The courteous, English-speaking crew provide attentive, professional service, with a guest-to-crew ratio of less than two to one, and they are always delighted to answer your questions about their sailing maneuvers. M.Y. LE PONANT will certainly captivate anyone who steps aboard its gleaming timber decks for a sailing.

The 18th-century cannons at Bequia’s hilltop Hamilton Fort evoke the Caribbean’s maritime legends and history.

Legends of the Caribbean

Caribbean tales call to mind elusive treasure maps, resonant cannon blasts and the locally produced beverage of choice, rum. The history of the Caribbean islands, while owing much to British, Dutch and French influences, would be incomplete without a mention of those fearsome swashbucklers of legend—pirates. From 1650 to 1720, thousands of these seafaring robbers, also known as buccaneers, targeted merchant ships and coastal towns. Notorious among them were Calico Jack, Henry Morgan and Captain Kidd, but perhaps most legendary of all was Edward Teach, better known as Blackbeard.

In 1717, Blackbeard famously captured the French slave ship La Concorde off the coast of Martinique, abandoned its crew and captive passengers ashore on Bequia and robbed them of their gold. Blackbeard renamed the ship Queen Anne’s Revenge and set sail, plundering the Caribbean and the southern Atlantic colonies and commandeering ships for his fleet. He grew quickly in infamy, tucking smoldering ropes into his wild hair and beard to intimidate his enemies with an air of supernatural terror. Barely a year later, however, Blackbeard battled Royal Navy Lieutenant Robert Maynard, commissioned by the Crown governor of colonial Virginia, and fell in defeat, ending his notorious yet riveting swashbuckling legend.

RELEASE OF LIABILITY, ASSUMPTION OF RISK AND BINDING ARBITRATION AGREEMENT
RESERVATIONS: Reservations must be confirmed by check, credit card, or bank draft and acknowledged in writing, accompanied by deposit. Gohagan has the right to change or cancel the itinerary or trip, or to substitute another tour or change the accommodation at any time and for any reason, with or without notice, and Gohagan reserves the right to change the itinerary or trip entirely at owner’s risk. The right is reserved to decline to accept any passenger under these circumstances. Gohagan may cancel a trip (or an option) for any reason whatsoever; if so, its sole responsibility is to refund monies paid by the participant to Gohagan. If you are unable to complete the rigors and requirements of participating in the activities, or who is abusive to others, in accordance with the leaders or third parties, or who Gohagan determines to detract from the enjoyment of the trip by others. Specific room/cabin assignments are within the sole discretion of the hotel or cruise line.

CANCELLATION: Cancellations for all or any part of the trip will not be effective until received in writing in the offices of Gohagan. Should you have to cancel, the following terms will apply: reservation cancellation(s) are subject to a $200 per person administrative fee from the time of booking through 120 days prior to departure; from 95 through 119 days prior to departure, $600 per person; from 60 through 94 days prior to departure, 70% of the published full regular tariffs; cancellations 59 days or less prior to departure, a pro-rata, or early return from the trip will result in forfeiture of 100% of the published full regular tariffs. In addition, any applicable airline cancellation fees, optional excursion cancellation fees and administrative fees may apply.

TRIP INSURANCE: Because our cancellation policies are strict, we strongly recommend that you purchase trip cancellation insurance. In the event that you must cancel your participation in a travel program, trip cancellation insurance may be the only source of reimbursement. Trip cancellation insurance is available for comprehensive coverage of such expenses in conjunction with cancellation due to illness or accident, and damaged or lost luggage. We will send you an application upon receipt of your reservation.

BINDING ARBITRATION: Any controversy or claim arising out of or relating in any way to this Release of Liability, Assumption of Risk and Binding Arbitration Agreement, the brochure, or any other information relating in any way to the trip, or to the trip itself, shall be settled solely and exclusively by binding arbitration in Chicago, Illinois, in accordance with the commercial rules of the American Arbitration Association then existent. In any such proceeding, the substantive, but not procedural law of Illinois will apply. The arbitrator and not any federal, state, or local court or agency shall have exclusive authority to resolve any dispute relating to the interpretation, applicability, enforceability, conscionability, or formation of this contract, including but not limited to any claim that all or any part of this contract is void or voidable.

ACCEPTANCE OF CONTRACT: By forwarding of deposit, the participant certifies that he/she does not have any mental, physical or other condition of disability that would create a hazard for himself/herself or other participants and accepts the terms contained in this Release of Liability, Assumption of Risk and Binding Arbitration Agreement.
